Legal Sunday Service 'Save the Date' Request

Dear Sir/Madam,

This is a preliminary letter to ask for your support by attendance at the Legal Sunday Service - Sunday October 13th 2013 at Bristol Cathedral.

I am very happy to tell you that Lord Richard Harries, Bishop of Oxford will be attending the service, and has agreed to deliver the sermon. Sir Robert Rogers KCB, Clerk of the House of Commons and Chief Executive will also be attending to do a reading.

As is customary, invitations will be extended to Presiding Judges and Circuit Judges, those associated with the Courts and the legal profession in Bristol, as well as Members and Officers of the City Council.

I do hope you will be able to attend and ask if you could mark the date in your diary. A formal invitation will follow.

Should you be able to circulate this amongst fellow colleagues it would be most appreciated. If they are interested in attending please do direct them to my coordinator Katie Nicholls (email address below) & she will know to send them formal invitations also.

I am very keen to maintain the tradition of the Legal Service in Bristol. It emphasises the importance of the legal profession in terms of employment, skills, commerce and social engagement. It is an integral part of Bristol tradition, and underlines Bristol's significance as the leading legal centre outside London. It is also an enjoyable event where the different elements of those in the practice of law come together. I hope I can rely on your support.

Yours sincerely

Dr Shaheen Chaudhry
High Sheriff of Bristol
