To become a member of Bristol Law Society, you must be nominated by a Proposer and Secunder who are both members of Bristol Law Society. Your Supervising Principle, Training Partner and/or Team Partner are all likely to be members and should be happy to nominate you. In the unlikely event that you are unable to find two members to support your application, please contact Bristol Law Society on 0117 976 3087 or email them at membership@bristollawsociety.com and they will be able to help you.
